

Frank Bishop, Jr.

May 30th, 2024

Professional Experience

Frank is a partner in the Portland, Maine office and practices in three distinct areas. First, Frank assists all types of clients in complying with state and federal consumer financial protection laws related to retail installment sales contracts, secured and unsecured loans and lines of credit, residential mortgages and home equity loans, auto leases, etc., with a focus on compliance with the state uniform consumer credit code (“UCCC”). Frank also assists clients in complying with state and federal law related to various business-purpose finance products. Finally, Frank advises litigation and attorney funding companies on compliance with state and federal law, including issues related to licensing, documentation and recharacterization.

Previously, Frank was an associate attorney in Pierce Atwood, LLP’s Business and Banking & Financial Services practice group.

Frank is the President of the Maine State Bar Association Board of Governors and the Vice President of the Board of Directors of the Maine School of Law Foundation. He is a member of the American Bar Association’s Business Law Section, a member of the Maine Bar Association’s Consumer and Financial Institutions Law Section, and is admitted to practice in Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Frank received his J.D. (cum laude) in 2007 from the Maine School of Law. Frank holds a Master of Arts degree in English from the University of Maine and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy from Colgate University.
