

New York DFS Announces Creation of Consumer Protection and Financial Enforcement Division

May 1st, 2019

On April 29, 2019, the Acting Superintendent of the New York Department of Financial Services announced that the DFS is creating a new Consumer Protection and Financial Enforcement Division. Katherine A. Lemire has been appointed as Executive Deputy Superintendent of the new division. The new division combines the previously separate Enforcement and Financial Frauds and Consumer Protection divisions.

NYDFS News Release

StoneTurn News Release

© 2019 CounselorLibrary.com, LLC. Republished with permission. All rights reserved.

CounselorLibrary.com, LLC, is an entity affiliated with the law firm of Hudson Cook, LLP. CounselorLibrary.com, LLC articles are written by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other authors, including employees of CounselorLibrary.com, LLC. The views and opinions contained in the articles do not constitute the views and opinions of Hudson Cook, LLP. CounselorLibrary(R) products and services are available directly through and from www.CounselorLibrary.com and are not legal advice.