

AI and Compliance – What You Need to Know

July 22nd, 2025 | Rebecca E. Kuehn and Mark D. Metrey

Artificial intelligence is rapidly reshaping the financial services industry. This has brought added scrutiny to AI's evolving frameworks and ethical considerations to ensure AI operates transparently, fairly, and in compliance with regulatory standards. The session will discuss steps to develop clear AI governance policies to ensure compliance professionals remain in control of financial integrity and regulatory adherence in an AI-driven landscape.

Speakers: • Rebecca E. Kuehn – Partner – Hudson Cook, LLP • Mark D. Metrey – Associate – Hudson Cook, LLP
