

CFPB AND NEW YORK AG V. CREDIT ACCEPTANCE: ISSUES AND IMPLICATIONS

November 2nd, 2023 | and Thomas J. Buiteweg

Description: The lawsuit filed by the CFPB and New York Attorney General against Credit Acceptance has potentially far-reaching implications for the auto finance industry and sales finance products in general. In this session, we will discuss the claims asserted, the status of the litigation, and the implications of the case for the broader auto finance and retail sales finance industries.