

Cleveland/Bradley, TN Chamber graduates 17th Youth Leadership class

April 18th, 2019

The Cleveland Daily Banner recently reported that twenty-three promising future leaders graduated from the 17th Youth Leadership class of the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce. Partner David Hicks was proud to honor these young leaders in the workforce development initiative, which included an emphasis on city, county and state government, community services, infrastructure, healthcare and manufacturing, along with reflections about the value of relationship and team-building opportunities. During the graduation ceremonies, David encouraged the graduates to consider what issues, circumstances, or problems break their hearts and what they can do to help.

Click here to read the Cleveland Daily Banner article.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.