

FiSCA Executive Director Ed D'Alessio endorses Kathy Kraninger to serve as director of the CFPB

September 4th, 2018

On August 26, Ed D'Alessio, executive director of the Financial Service Centers of America (FiSCA) and Of Counsel to Hudson Cook, explained in The Hill why Kathy Kraninger should be confirmed as the next director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). According to Ed, "Her nomination represents an opportunity to turn around a massive bureaucracy, which has been used, under the guise of consumer protection, to attack many of America's vital financial service providers."

FiSCA is a national trade association representing non-bank financial service providers throughout the U.S. Prior to serving as its executive director, Ed served as FiSCA's general counsel. He coordinates FiSCA's government relations efforts and works closely with FiSCA's lobbying team to develop and implement its legislative and regulatory strategies.

Click here to read the article.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.