

Hudson Cook, LLP Adds Rebecca E. Kuehn as Partner

June 23rd, 2015

Top financial services attorney joins industry leading compliance law firm

June 23, 2015 – Hudson Cook, LLP, a nationwide provider of legal compliance services for the financial services industry, announces the addition of Rebecca E. Kuehn as a partner in its Washington, D.C. office. With over 15 years of experience in consumer financial services and consumer protection matters, Becki counsels financial institutions, consumer reporting agencies, service providers, and others in complying with consumer financial laws and prohibitions against unfair, deceptive, or abusive trade practices. She represents clients before federal and state agencies, particularly the Federal Trade Commission and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, in investigations and other proceedings.

“Becki’s valuable experience at the Federal Trade Commission and as counsel for a major information services corporation perfectly aligns with the Firm’s practice, and she will be a great asset for our clients,” said Tom Hudson, Chairman of Hudson Cook LLP. Becki served as an Assistant Director in the FTC’s Division of Privacy and Identity Protection, where she led the Fair Credit Reporting Act program and oversaw the Commission’s enforcement, outreach, and rulemaking activities in that area. Most recently, Becki served as Vice President and Senior Regulatory Counsel at CoreLogic, and was the lead attorney and coverage counsel for the CoreLogic credit reporting and consumer data businesses, providing advice and guidance to management on a wide variety of consumer data and privacy-related regulatory issues, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act.

Becki graduated from The George Washington University National Law Center with high honors, and is admitted to practice in Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.
