

Kate Fisher to Speak at Alternative Finance Bar Association Event

November 16th, 2017

Hudson Cook partner Kate Fisher will be speaking on November 17 as part of a panel discussion at an Alternative Finance Bar Association (AFBA) event. The discussion will review the current regulatory and case law landscape. To listen to the panel discussion, please email Tiffany Diaz at Tiffany@LRohanlaw.com to receive dial-in information.

Kate currently serves as the chair of the AFBA's Compliance Section. She also is the co-chair for the AFBA's Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C., Regional Leaders, and a member of the Association's board. Her practice focuses on the areas of consumer financial services and small business financing. Kate represents banks, finance companies, private equity and investment bank investors, merchant cash advance companies, and small business lenders in the establishment of new programs and products, and conducts due diligence and compliance reviews of consumer lending and business financing portfolios.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.