

LEND360 Small Business Lending Advisory Committee

September 27th, 2017

The 4th Annual LEND360, the go-to event for leaders in the FinTech industry, has named Hudson Cook, LLP to the first-of-its-kind Small Business Lending Advisory Committee. Catherine Brennan and Katherine Fisher, partners in the firm's Maryland office, will represent Hudson Cook on the committee.

The committee's first undertaking was to evaluate and comment on the upcoming Request for Information from the Consumer Finance Protection Bureau (CFPB) regarding Section 1071 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which pertains to lender data collection requirements for loans made to small, minority and women-owned businesses. LEND360 will publish the comment letter later this fall.

LEND360 has an agenda track dedicated to innovations, opportunities and best practices in small business lending. These sessions will help tailor businesses for the future, with the goal of greater success in the small business financing market.

LEND360, taking place October 11-13, 2017, at the Fairmont Dallas Hotel, brings together the entire ecosystem of online lending, including consumer, small business and marketplace lenders; tech platforms; legal counsel; investors; and more. More than 850 online lending professionals from across the globe connect for three days of sharing insights, innovations and information. To learn more, visit www.LEND360.org.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.