

NAF Association Non-Prime Auto Financing Conference Wrap-Up

July 19th, 2019

In the July/August issue of Non-Prime Times, Partner Eric Johnson provides his annual wrap-up of the NAF Association's Non-Prime Auto Financing conference that took place June 5-7 in Plano, TX. Over 400 attendees participated in two tracks: a general track and a compliance track.

A key component of the conference was the wealth of presentations offering key economic and automotive market trends. Other sessions included an overview of the NAF/AFSA annual non-prime auto financing survey; fair lending and fair servicing; state regulators insights; credit reporting highlights; and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. The final day of the conference featured "Fraud Friday," a popular day of sessions which included presentations on synthetic fraud, dealer fraud and how to use technology in validations to reduce fraud.

Presentations from the conference are available on the NAF website. Click here to view the July/August issue of Non-Prime Times.

Eric Johnson assists national and state banks, savings associations, credit unions, mortgage bankers, other licensed lenders, motor vehicles dealers and automotive finance companies in the development and maintenance of nationwide consumer mortgage and automobile finance programs; online motor vehicle sales programs; litigation funding programs; and electronic payment programs. He is the chair of the NAF Legal Committee.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.