

Non-Prime Times publishes Partner Eric Johnson's article on FTC crackdown of fake document sellers

November 20th, 2018

In the November/December issue of Non-Prime Times, Partner Eric Johnson presents a recent case filed by the FTC against operators of websites that sold fake financial and other documents which could be used to facilitate identity theft, tax fraud and other crimes. Eric cautions that buying fake documents and synthetic ID fraud is a huge issue for the auto finance industry, but the FTC is working to combat these issues.

Eric assists national and state banks, savings associations, credit unions, mortgage bankers, other licensed lenders, motor vehicles dealers and automotive finance companies in the development and maintenance of nationwide consumer mortgage and automobile finance programs; online motor vehicle sales programs; litigation funding programs; and electronic payment programs.

Non-Prime Times is the official publication of the National Automotive Finance Foundation. Click here to read the current issue.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.