

Partner Kate Fisher wins Maryland Bar Association's Business Law Section "Hero Award"

May 10th, 2019

Hudson Cook LLP Attorney Kate Fisher won a Maryland Bar Association's Business Law Section "Hero Award" for her role in a volunteer effort to educate Marylanders on preventing financial exploitation of older adults. The award was presented on May 8, 2019 at the Business Law Section Council dinner.

Kate and fellow members of the Business Law Section's Consumer Credit and Financial Institutions Committee have organized and presented the Money Smart for Older Adults program in senior centers in Maryland.

The Money Smart for Older Adults program raises awareness among older adults and their caregivers on how to prevent elder financial exploitation and encourages advance planning and informed financial decision-making. Money Smart for Older Adults was developed jointly by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. The Maryland Bar Association's Consumer Credit and Financial Institutions Committee has customized the presentation for Marylanders. If you would like to get involved in the Money Smart for Older Adults volunteer effort or host a presentation, please contact Kate at kfisher@hudco.com.

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.