

Tom Hudson's Latest Book – CARLAW® IV The Federal Government's War on Car Dealers

February 8th, 2017

CounselorLibrary.com, LLC, the publisher of automobile financing and leasing legal compliance services, today announced its latest book, Tom Hudson's CARLAW® IV The Federal Government's War on Car Dealers. Tracing actions over the last five years by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the Federal Trade Commission, the book chronicles the unprecedented federal full court press on dealers and their sales, financing and leasing activities.

CARLAW® IV The Federal Government's War on Car Dealers addresses the government's war on several fronts – advertising, discrimination, disclosure requirements, and many of the other everyday compliance issues dealers face.

CARLAW® IV The Federal Government's War on Car Dealers is a must read for dealer lawyers, dealer principals, store managers and F&I personnel, and is available for $49.95 (plus shipping and handling) at <http://www.counselorlibrary.com/public/products-book-carlaw-war.cfm>.
