

Two Hudson Cook Attorneys to Speak at Broker Fair 2018

April 10th, 2018

Catherine Brennan and Katherine Fisher of Hudson Cook will speak at Broker Fair 2018, presented by deBanked. This inaugural conference, on May 14, 2018, in Brooklyn, NY, will be the largest gathering of merchant cash advance and business loan brokers in the country, with an expected audience of 350-400 attendees.

Catherine Brennan and Katherine Fisher

Hudson Cook is a proud sponsor of this one-day conference, which will bring together brokers, lenders, funders and service providers to present industry-focused and uniquely curated talks, to foster learning and inspiration, and provoke conversations relevant to the industry.

Both Brennan and Fisher will speak during a session entitled “Keeping It Legal,” which will focus on funder and lender legal hot topics and compliance issues.

Brennan and Fisher are partners in the firm’s Hanover, MD, office. Brennan assists national and state banks, investment banks, consumer and commercial finance companies, mortgage bankers, installment lenders, and other licensed lenders in the development and maintenance of nationwide consumer and commercial lending programs. Fisher’s practice focuses on consumer financial services and small business financing. She represents banks, finance companies, private equity and investment bank investors, merchant cash advance companies, and small business lenders that are establishing new programs and products, and conducts due diligence and compliance reviews of consumer lending and business financing portfolios.
