

Webb McArthur and Latif Zaman Promoted to Hudson Cook Partners

December 21st, 2021 | Webb McArthur and Latif Zaman

Hanover, Maryland, December 21, 2021 – Hudson Cook, LLP is pleased to announce that attorneys Webb McArthur and Latif Zaman have been promoted to equity partners of the firm, effective January 1, 2022.

Webb, resident in the firm’s Washington, DC office, advises a range of financial institutions, consumer reporting agencies, technology and information companies, and others on compliance with data use and privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act, California Consumer Privacy Act, Colorado Privacy Act, Virginia Consumer Data Protection Act, General Data Protection Regulation, and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. As a member of the firm’s Credit Reporting, Privacy and Data Security practice group, Webb works closely with clients to develop data use and privacy compliance strategies, including in connection with product assessments, consumer relations, vendor management, and due diligence matters. He is an active member of the American Bar Association, Business Law Section, and the International Association of Privacy Professionals. Webb speaks and writes frequently for financial services industry trade associations and publications.

Rebecca \(“Becki”\) Kuehn, chair of Hudson Cook’s Credit Reporting, Privacy and Data Security group, credits Webb’s particular interest in the states’ consumer data privacy laws with the growth of the firm’s data privacy group. “Webb has been helping clients navigate the increasing patchwork of these state privacy and data protection laws, beginning with California and with the recent addition of Virginia and Colorado,” said Becki. “He has been an invaluable resource to our clients and we welcome him to the firm partnership.”

Latif, resident in the firm’s Hanover, MD office, works closely with financial services providers at various stages of growth to develop, maintain and expand nationwide consumer and commercial credit and funding programs. On behalf of investor clients, Latif engages in due diligence of financial service providers, including fintech firms, bank partnership platforms, small business lenders, sales finance companies and legal funding companies. Latif advises legal funding companies on compliance with state and federal law, including issues related to licensing, documentation and recharacterization. Latif is a contributing editor for the American Bar Association’s Business Law Section digital publication, Business Law Today, and is a member of the Alternative Finance Bar Association and the American Bar Association, Business Law Section, formerly serving as a young lawyer liaison with the Consumer Financial Services Committee.

“Latif has been an integral part of our team representing our clients,” said Catherine M. Brennan, chair of the firm’s Fintech group. “In particular, Latif advises clients in legal funding and commercial choice of law lending programs. I look forward to working with Latif to continue to grow our Fintech and Business Funding practices.”

Contact Webb

202.715.2012

wmcArthur@hudco.com

Contact Latif

410.782.2346

lzaman@hudco.com

For press inquiries please contact:

Alice H. Simons, Marketing Communications Manager

410.782.2357

asimons@hudco.com

Hudson Cook, LLP provides articles, webinars and other content on its website from time to time provided both by attorneys with Hudson Cook, LLP, and by other outside authors, for information purposes only. Hudson Cook, LLP does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the content, and has no duty to correct or update information contained on its website. The views and opinions contained in the content provided on the Hudson Cook, LLP website do not constitute the views and opinion of the firm. Such content does not constitute legal advice from such authors or from Hudson Cook, LLP. For legal advice on a matter, one should seek the advice of counsel.