

Shift to the States: Emerging Trends in Consumer Finance Enforcement

October 27th, 2025 | Robert D. Tilley and Justin B. Hosie

With the CFPB's recent pullback, states are increasingly acting as the primary enforcers of consumer protection laws. This panel will explore the emerging priorities from state attorneys general and financial regulators, including deceptive sales practices, "junk fees," AI, data privacy, and cancellation procedures.
